ORDER:-

Sri S.Ravindernath, Inspector of Police (Retired) in his representation received through the reference 3rd cited has informed that he retired from service on 31.12.2005 and drawing meagre pension amount and facing lot of difficulties and requested the Government to restore the earlier service for the purpose of pensionary benefits duly treating the out of employment period as "Dies-non".

2. In the references 5th read above, the Director General of Police, A.P., Hyderabad, has informed that Sri S.Ravindranath, Retired Inspector of Police, Hyderabad City was initially appointed as S.I. (civil) on 1.2.1974 and he was promoted as Inspector of Police (Civil) on 12.2.1985. While working as Inspector of Police (Civil), he tendered resignation to the post of Inspector of Police in the year 1992 and the same was accepted vide D.O.No.1733 (No.L&O/E5/1323/92), dated 12.5.1992. He contested in the Assembly By-Elections held for the Sanathnagar Assembly Segment and lost the elections. He made a representation to the Government to allow him to withdraw his resignation and to continue in the Department. After careful examination, the Government reinstated him into service as Inspector of Police by foregoing all his previous service vide G.O.Ms. No.149, Home (Pol.C) Department, dated 29.5.1995. Later, he approached the Government with a request to consider his case on par with similarly situated person Sri B.Narsing Rao and to restore his seniority for the purpose of pensionary benefits. The Government rejected his request vide Memo. No.30938/Ser.I/A1/2009-2, dated 7.1.2011.

3. The D.G.P., further informed that Sri B.Narsing Rao, Inspector of Police, of Cyberabad Commissionerate also resigned and contested in the election and sanction was accorded to him for the purpose of seniority vide G.O.Ms.No.84, Home dated 9.5.2005. The applicant Sri Ravindranath has requested to extend the same benefit to him as given vide G.O. Ms.No.84, Home (Ser.I) Department, dated 9.5.2005. The orders issued in the said G.O. is applicable to Sri B.Narsing Rao, Inspector of Police (Retired) only and the Government have also stated that it should not be quoted as a precedent case for further reference. With regard to Sri M.Hanumantha Rao, while he was working as Inspector (Civil), he also resigned his job on 31.7.2008 due to personal family problems. Later he participated in politics in the General Elections as a Praja Rajyam Party member and the same was not materialized. He approached the Government and the Government re-appointed him as a special case on humanitarian grounds by invoking Rule 31 of A.P. State & Subordinate Service Rules, 1996 vide G.O. Ms. No.35, Home (Ser.I) Department, dated 16.2.2010. The period of out of service was treated as 'dies non'.

4. Government after careful re-examination of the entire matter, hereby decide and accordingly direct that the period of earlier service of 18 years in respect of Sri S.Ravindernath, Inspector of Police (Retired) prior to his resignation, be counted for the purpose of pensionary benefits only, in relaxation of Rule 30 (C) of A.P. State & Subordinate Service Rules, 1996, duly treating the out of employment period as "Dies-Non", as a special case, by invoking Rule 31 of A.P. State & Subordinate Service Rules, 1996.

5. The Director General of Police, A.P., Hyderabad, is requested to take further necessary action in the matter.
